Dear Colleague:

On Tuesday, June 9, 2009, Donald Kerr, former Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence in the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, will address the Standing Committee on Law and National Security. His topic is "Scars of Intelligence Reform."

The breakfast will be held at the University Club, 1135 16th Street, NW in Washington and will begin at 8:00 am.

Dr. Kerr, currently a Research Professor at George Mason University, has a notable career in the Intelligence Community. Prior to serving as second in command in the office of the DNI, he served as Director of the National Reconnaissance Office, Deputy Director for Science and Technology at the CIA, Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force for Intelligence Space Technology and Assistant Director of the FBI, responsible for the Laboratory Division and Director of the Los Alamos National Laboratory from 1979 to 1985.

The charge for this breakfast is $25.00. Reservations must be made in advance. Checks made payable to "ABA" may be enclosed with the response form and returned by June 5. If you are bringing guests, please note their names on the form. In the event you need to cancel your reservation, a refund will be made provided notice of cancellation is received in our office by June 5. There is no charge for members of the press.

We look forward to seeing you at our next breakfast program on Tuesday, June 9.

Sincerely,

Albert C. Harvey
Chair
